

Thinking Money

A Financial Expedition

The City of Cerritos and Cerritos Library are pleased to present "Thinking Money," a new traveling exhibition designed to teach tweens, teens and the adults in their lives about money. The display will be presented from Friday, September 1 through Saturday, October 7 near the Craftsman area. Through an adventure-themed storyline, interactive iPad content and other fun activities, "Thinking Money" explores themes like wants vs. needs, preparing for a rainy/sunny day, imagining your future self and avoiding financial fraud. A variety of interesting, educational and fun programs for children, teens and adults are offered in conjunction with "Thinking Money."

Rich "One" Cofinco: Pioneering Artist and Fashion Industry Innovator

Rich "One" Cofinco is a pioneering street artist who blazed a trail in the fashion and footwear industries to establish two ground-breaking footwear companies, Creative Recreation and ASIF (As Seen In the Future). Rich One, who grew up in Cerritos, shares how he channeled his creative spirit, passion for art and fierce competitiveness into a successful career as an artist, designer and entrepreneur. An audience Q&A session will conclude his presentation.

Wed., Sept. 6 7 p.m. Skyline Room

How To Buy a Car

Learn the information you will need to select, purchase and finance a car. Stephanie Holloway of the Los Angeles County Department of Consumer and Business Affairs will discuss the differences in purchasing new and used vehicles, leasing versus buying, negotiating a price and financing options.

Thurs., Sept. 7 6:30 p.m. Skyline Room A

Community Shredding Event

Community members may bring up to two banker-sized boxes of paper documents to be shredded at no charge. Documents will be shredded on-site at the event which will be held at the Cerritos Senior Center located at 12340 South Street. Staples may be left on the documents. This is a secure way to dispose of paperwork that contains private information.

Sat., Sept. 9 9 a.m.-12 p.m. Cerritos Senior Center Parking Lot

Teen Finance 101

Ever wonder how to create a budget, open a checking account, develop good credit or avoid identity theft? This interactive workshop will address these questions and more with information provided by the Federal Trade Commission. Space is limited to 20 and registration is required.

267669 Thurs., Sept. 14 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Ages 12-15 Hi-Tech Lab

Fraud Prevention

Learn how to protect yourself and your family from identity theft, financial scams, forgery-fraud, real estate fraud and elder fraud. This program will be presented by Sergeant Dana McCants of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.

Tues., Sept. 19 7 p.m. Skyline Room

Money Bingo for Kids

This is a fun and educational game for kids to practice counting money. Space is limited to 20 participants and registration is required.

267670 Thurs., Sept. 21 3:30-4:30 p.m.
Ages 7-11 Art Studio

Cyber Security for Finance Workshop

Learn how to protect your online banking and financial transactions from cyber criminals at the Cyber Security for Finance Workshop. Tips for avoiding online scams will also be discussed. The workshop will be presented by Sergeant Peter J. Hish of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Fraud & Cyber Crimes Bureau Cyber Investigations Center.

Tues., Sept. 26 7 p.m. Skyline Room

Create Your Own Business for Teens

Teens will have the opportunity to discuss their business ideas and interest in being an entrepreneur. Karie Armstrong Willford of the Small Business Development Center of Long Beach will discuss how to develop a business plan and turn an idea into a business. Registration is required.

267671 Thurs. Sept. 28 3:30-5:30 p.m.
Ages 12-18 Hi Tech Lab

Programs with a course number require registration. For information on how to register, please see the Cerritos Library News link on the Cerritos Library's website at cerritoslibrary.us or call (562) 916-1388.

"Thinking Money" was developed by the American Library Association Public Programs Office in collaboration with the FINRA Investor Education Foundation, whose support made this exhibition possible.

